AN ACT to amend the penal law, in relation to establishing the offense of public display of a blurred sexual advertisement

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. The penal law is amended by adding a new section 245.12 to 2 read as follows:

3 § 245.12 Public display of a blurred sexual advertisement.

4 (a) A person is guilty of public display of a blurred sexual adver-
5 tisement when, with knowledge of his character and content, he or she 6 displays, publishes, disseminates, circulates, places before the public 7 or causes, directly or indirectly, to be displayed, published, dissem-8 inated, circulated or placed before the public in or on any window,
9 showcase, newsstand, display rack, wall, door, billboard, display board,
10 viewing screen, moving picture screen, marquee, newspaper, magazine,
11 pamphlet, booklet, website, publication or similar place, in this state, 12 any pictorial, three-dimensional or other visual adult entertainment 13 advertisement depicting a person or a portion of the human body without 14 revealing the entire face of such person.

15 (b) For the purposes of this section, the term "adult entertainment 16 advertisement" shall mean an advertisement for any person, firm, corpo-17 ration or association that owns or operates anything sex-related includ-18 ing, but not limited to any:

19 (i) strip club, gentleman's club, or establishment which features
20 dancers that are displayed in such manner or attire as to expose to view 21 any portion of the pubic area, anus, vulva or genitals, or any simu-
22 lation thereof, or permit any female to appear in such manner or attire 23 as to expose to view any portion of the breast below the top of the 24 areola;

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.
